I have had the pleasure of working with Yula Vostretsova, a native Cuban traditional dancer, choreographer, and teacher. For my post-graduation Co-Op collaboration, I utilized graphic design and artificial intelligence to enhance her company's graphics.

This work effectively communicated her classes, performances, workshops, and auditions, significantly aiding her outreach and engagement.

Elegancia Cubana – Vancouver, Canada

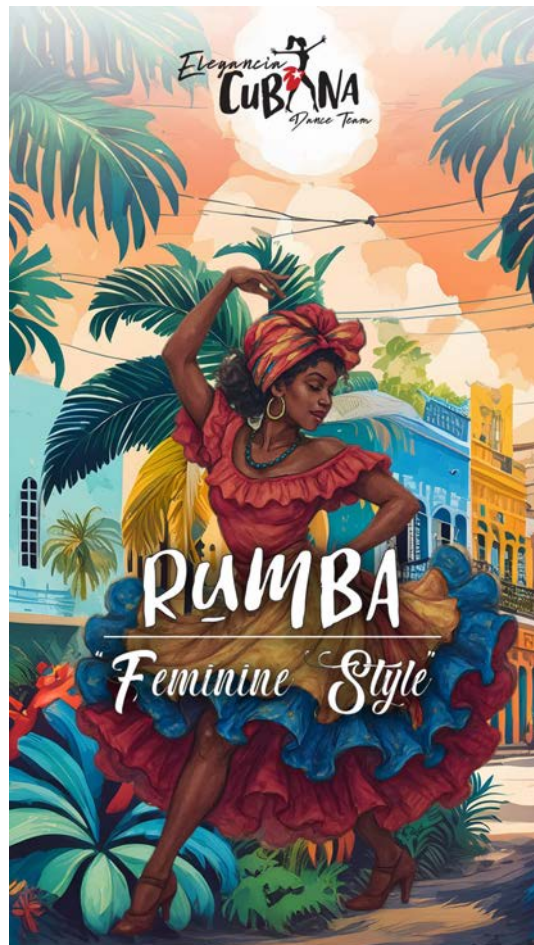

Webmaster · Designer · Film & Video Editor

I designed and managed the Elegancia Cubana website, creating a visually captivating and easy-to-navigate platform that reflects the vibrant spirit of Cuban dance.

My work involved creating engaging digital content, eye-catching promotional graphics, illustrations and high-quality video edits for workshops and performances. I also managed the newsletter strategy, developing impactful campaigns that boosted audience engagement and highlighted the brand's vibrant artistic identity across multiple platforms.

This letter serves to confirm that graphic designer Eduardo Ramirez, also known as "Eddie," collaborated with my company in a professional manner, offering great creativity in my publications. His contributions included updating my logo, creating illustrations, designing uniforms, and editing videos and photographs over a period of approximately six months, completing around 200 hours of work.

I am extremely grateful and satisfied with the exceptional work he performed as a graphic designer. Please feel free to contact me for any additional information regarding Eddie's collaboration.

Yula V.
Sincerely,
